EASLEY APPOINTS MACK TO CRAVEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed Peter Mack, Jr. of Havelock to the Craven Community College Board of Trustees.

Mack has worked as an attorney at Peter Mack, P.A., Attorney at Law since 1992. Prior to starting his private practice he worked with the Havelock Police Department and the Atlantic Beach Police Department. Mack is a member of the Havelock Chamber of Commerce and the Havelock Civitans. He attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL and the North Carolina Central School of Law.

The Craven Community College Board of Trustees has 13 members, each appointed by the Governor, who serve four-year terms. The main duties of the board are to elect a president to the institution; employ all other personnel to the community college; purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; apply the standards for admission and graduation; receive and accept donations given to the community college; and provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution.
